The Girl Scout Promise
On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law

The Girl Scout Law
I will do my best to be:
honest and fair
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring, courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do,
and to:
respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Girl Scout Policies

Admission to Troops. A girl who makes and accepts the Girl Scout Promise and Law, pays annual membership dues and meets the age and grade requirements shall not be denied membership because of race, color, religion, national origin, parent's marital status, disability or family income.

Troops Sponsored by Religious Groups. When a Girl Scout troop is sponsored by one religious group, members of a different faith or religious affiliation within the troop shall not be required to take part in religious observance of the sponsoring group.

Political and Legislative Activity. Girl Scouts of the United States of America and any council or other organization holding a Girl Scouts of the United States of America credential may not, nor may they authorize anyone on their behalf to participate or intervene directly or indirectly in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office, participate in any legislative activity or function which contravenes the laws governing tax-exempt organizations.
