

Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma

(Program & Activity Commitment to Excellence)
2021-2022

Troop # _____

Purpose

The P.A.C.E. award is a planning tool, along with the appropriate Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting, GSUSA and Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma websites and other age-appropriate program materials, designed to insure all girls are achieving or exceeding program and activity goals that will provide for a well-balanced, exciting and quality experience. Help today's girls become tomorrow's leaders! This form should be completed with the girls, not for the girls. Submit all three pages.

- Troops of all program levels (Daisy through Ambassador) may earn this patch.
- Troops must complete every requirement to qualify as a P.A.C.E. troop, subject to approval by your service team.
- The completion of this form is a requirement on the Troop Leader/Advisor Agreement #210F which must be fulfilled to earn the Leader Award in the spring.
- Troops are asked to return the completed form to the service unit manager at the May leader meeting.
- All troops are required to turn in this form to the SU manager even if not completed.
- Service teams will turn in all reviewed forms to the council by June 30.
- Approved P.A.C.E. troops may purchase patches and/or year segments after August 1 at the Girl Scout Store.

Activities Planning- Goals –Evaluation

Place an 'x' next to each activity your troop participated in.

- _____ Girls planned activities and/or set goals throughout the year utilizing the circle, team, patrol system, town meeting, executive board or steering committee to accomplish them.
- _____ GSEOK Safety Policies were used by the troop when planning all activities.
- _____ Girls were given the opportunity to evaluate and reflect on activities as they occurred (for example: What did we learn new? Are we accomplishing what we set out to do? Did we work together well as a team? Are we having fun?)

Character/Leadership Development

Girl Led, Learning by Doing, and Cooperative Learning define how we do Girl Scouting. List any three GSUSA badges, awards, or journeys the troop completed this year.

Girl Scout Values

Throughout the year, the troop utilized the values of Girl Scouts as a focus for troop activities. Give an example of how your troop demonstrated or encouraged the meaning of each value.
