

GIRL SCOUTS AT SCHOOL SCHOOL VISIBILITY PATCH

Purpose: To help make Girl Scouting more visible to peers and school personnel and to present a positive image of Girl Scouting. By letting your school know Girl Scouts are there, it will encourage non-Girl Scouts to join.

Choose activities in each section to earn the patch.

SCHOOL VISIBILITY

Letting the school know you're there

Choose 2 activities:

1. Put up a bulletin board display in your school showing your troop's activities using pictures, event fliers, patches, etc. Display needs to be up at least one month if possible.
2. Do a flag ceremony at your school during Girl Scout Week. Girls should be in Girl Scout uniforms or Girl Scout T-shirts if they do not have a uniform.
3. Do something special for the teachers, staff, or principal at your school to show appreciation for what they do.
4. Put a Girl Scout news article in your school newspaper/newsletter or place a Girl Scout ad in your school yearbook.
5. Invite a teacher to help with an activity or badge.

SERVICE TO YOUR SCHOOL

Make your school a better place

Choose 1 activity:

1. Volunteer as a troop to help with a special project at school.
2. With your school's permission, plant flowers in a vacant spot on the school grounds.
3. With your school's permission, paint trashcans in colorful patterns.
4. Assist the PTA with one of their meetings by doing a flag ceremony, handing out printed materials, etc.

MAKE NEW FRIENDS

Extend membership to people at your school

---

Choose 1 activity:

1. Invite a non-Girl Scout as a guest to a troop meeting, field trip, or service unit event.
2. Volunteer to organize rainy day activities or games during recess.
3. Volunteer to help during the Girl Scout Recruitment Event at your school.

4. Recruit a new girl member and have her register with your troop.

GIRL SCOUTS AT SCHOOL EVALUATION

Evaluation is an important part of the Girl Scout Program. In your troop meeting, get feedback from the girls on how well the project went.

Do you think your school has a better understanding and awareness of Girl Scouts since you completed the program? Please explain.

Have the girls write their comments below.

Was it fun? What did you learn?

Girl Scouts at School patches are available for purchase for $1.35 each at the Girl Scout Store in Tulsa. Year strips are also available and can be used if you do the patch program more than one year.

Please complete both sides of this evaluation and turn in when you purchase your patches.

If you need ideas or information as you work on this patch contact your council representative or the council program department in Tulsa, 918-749-2551 or 800-707-9914
