LEADERSHIP SOCIETY

ANNUAL LUNCHEON CELEBRATION
BENEFITING GIRL SCOUTS OF EASTERN OKLAHOMA

THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 2021
A Virtual Interactive Experience

— Girl Scout Founder —

Juliette Gordon Low

Juliette “Daisy” Gordon Low began Girl Scouts in Savannah, Georgia, on March 12, 1912, with one phone call to her cousin, “I’ve got something for the girls of Savannah, and all of America, and all the world, and we’re going to start it tonight.”

She held strong to the unwavering belief that girls are capable of doing whatever they set their minds to, leading thousands of girls into the outdoors and on to professional careers. She encouraged young women to pursue an education, career, and family if they wanted.

Juliette’s dream of bringing together wealthy, poor, racially diverse, and physically challenged girls to grow together into responsible womanhood has impacted more than 50 million girls and adult women. From knot-tying and signaling to technology research and rock climbing, the Girl Scout Movement serves to develop leadership, life skills, self-esteem, and confidence. All this from one woman’s vision – a woman named Juliette Low.

The Juliette Low Leadership Society serves as a visible advocacy group that raises funds to support the Girl Scout Leadership Experience in eastern Oklahoma and provides a conduit for raising awareness about the cultivation of a new generation of women leaders through Girl Scouts.

Our Work

The Juliette Low Leadership Society, through its service and support, provides Girl Scouts in eastern Oklahoma with a variety of program opportunities and financial assistance.

Classic Girl Scouting

We believe that courage, confidence, and character make it possible for a girl to make the world a better place. We are investing in the leaders of our future by making the classic Girl Scout experience available through financial support.

Girl Scout Gold Award

The Gold Award is the highest award in Girl Scouting. The Juliette Low Leadership Society is the sole supporter of the council's annual Gold Award Ceremony.

Scholarships

We award scholarships to graduating Girl Scouts, helping them to pursue higher education, one of the most critical components of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience. The scholarship funds have supported needs such as gas to commute to school, books, tuition, study abroad programs and even flight lessons.

Outdoor Education

In addition to resident camp and counselor-in-training scholarships, JLLS also promotes outdoor education as one of the primary supporters of the council's horse programs, which reach hundreds of girls each year.

Staff-Led Troop

Our Staff-Led Troops program supplements traditional volunteer-led troops by providing the Girl Scout Leadership Experience for under-served girls. Included as part of the program are opportunities to participate in Girl Scouts Beyond Bars, College Connect, and Robotics.

— Honorary Chair —

Kimberly Teehee

Kimberly Teehee grew up in Claremore, OK. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Northeastern State University and her Juris Doctorate from the University of Iowa, College of Law.

Kimberly served President Barack Obama for three years as the first-ever Senior Policy Advisor for Native American Affairs in the White House Domestic Policy Council. She played a key role in three White House Tribal Nations Conferences and led a government-wide team to ensure that progress was being made on tribal policy and legislative priorities. Kimberly is especially proud of her work toward the Administration's support of proposed legislation to hold all perpetrators of domestic violence accountable for their crimes against Native American women, closing a jurisdictional gap in Indian country. Prior to returning home to the Cherokee Nation, she served as a partner for the Mapetsi Policy Group, representing Indian tribes and tribal organizations.

In 2019, Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Chuck Hoskin Jr. named Kimberly the tribe's first delegate to the U.S House of Representatives. She was also named a visiting Sequoyah Fellow at her alma mater, NSU.

Kimberly is currently the Director of Government Relations for Cherokee Nation and Senior Vice President of Government Relations for Cherokee Nation Businesses.

Patty Walker

Patricia (Patty) Walker is an Oklahoma State University alumnus with BsC and MSc degrees in Geoscience. She serves on the Executive Advisory Board for the OSU Boone Pickens School of Geology and was named a 2020 Distinguished Alumni OSU College of Arts and Sciences.

Patty's career with ExxonMobil began in 1986 and has taken her to six of the seven continents working on diverse energy projects. In 2013, she was named to a Senior Principal Geoscientist role in the Upstream and in 2015, she was promoted to Chief Geoscientist. In this role, she served as a technical expert and advisor to senior leadership on global ExxonMobil activities.

In addition to her work with ExxonMobil, Patty has served as a geologic consultant focused on asset evaluations. After retiring in 2020, she has continued to be an active member of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, the Houston House of Delegates, and the Houston Geologic Society. Patty is married to another geoscientist and has two children, Amanda and Nathan.

Amanda Walker

Amanda Walker holds two degrees in meteorology. She received her bachelor degree from Texas A&M and her masters degree from Pennsylvania State University. Her main areas of interest are tropical cyclones and communication, both influenced by her experience with Hurricane Ike in 2008. Amanda is currently a Technical Meteorologist at Athenium Analytics and works on a variety of meteorology projects specializing in hurricane-related work.

Janet C. Zink 1938-2000 Memorial Scholarship

For nearly a decade Janet Zink gave of herself to help Girl Scouts grow and prosper in ways that benefit thousands of young women. She was a founding member of the Juliette Low Leadership Society and served as Honorary Chair in 1996. She co-chaired the capital campaign that raised $3.5 million to build Camp Swannie, an addition to the Tulsa Service Center and many other improvements.

With contributions from The John Steele Zink Foundation and donations given in her memory, the Janet C. Zink Scholarship was established. Girls will continue to benefit from her vision and leadership as her legacy lives on in the girls whose lives her scholarships support.

Mott-MacLeod Family Scholarship

Created by Marcia MacLeod and her husband Ron, and named for their families, this scholarship recognizes the lifetime of leadership that begins with Girl Scouts.

A lifelong Girl Scout, growing up in Marietta, Oklahoma, Marcia found a path in Girl Scouts that encouraged her love of the outdoors and independent spirit. After serving as the Juliette Low Leadership Society Honorary Chair in 2014, they established these scholarship to help the next generation of girls succeed.

-  Girl Scout Gold Award
-  Girl Scout Silver Award
-  Girl Scout Bronze Award

JANET C. ZINK SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Madison Goeppinger

Madison has led the way during her 11 years as a Girl Scout. She is also involved with other organizations such as, 4-H, FFA, National Honor Society, and Coweta Academic Team. Through the Girl Scout Cookie Program, Madison has learned people skills, business ethics and money management. Madison has gained valuable leadership skills by being a Day Camp Program Aide, mentoring younger Girl Scouts. She plans to attend Texas A&M University to study horticulture.

“In Girl Scouts, I have learned leadership skills, developed a hard work ethic and gained experience in a wide variety of subjects.”

JANET C. ZINK SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Ariana White

Ariana has a passion for the outdoors. As a 12-year Girl Scout Camp Tallchief veteran, Ariana has learned to become a better leader through completing Councilor in Training I and II. She has applied her leadership skills to her work as a lifeguard, swim instructor and volunteer. She serves on several school committees and is a volunteer with Night Light Tulsa. Ariana plans to attend The University of the Ozarks with interest in becoming a Physician Assistant.

“I have learned many things at Girl Scout Camp but my favorites have to be canoeing and how to be a better leader.”

MOTT-MACLEOD FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Maya Chandwaney

Maya knows that hard work in school and Girl Scouts has shaped her into the leader she is today. She has been a Girl Scout member for 13 years, has earned her Bronze and Silver Awards, and is on the right path to complete her Gold Award project. Her project focuses on informing young voters, specifically high school students, about the importance of voting in local elections. Maya has earned several awards and honors this year including National Merit semifinalist, Distinguished Graduate and NSDA Academic All American. Maya would like to pursue a mathematics major with a Pre-med curriculum.

“As I approach my high school graduation, I look forward to continuing to carry out the Girl Scout law in college, the workplace, and other aspects of my life, and will lead in a new field using the skills that Girl Scouts has taught me.”

Carys Stringer

Carys is on the path to make the world a better place. She has been a Girl Scout member for 10 years, has earned her Bronze and Silver Awards, and is on the path to complete her Gold Award. In 2018, Carys was selected to attend NASA's Goddard Space Center in Maryland for Leadership and NASA program training. She later created and defined GSEOK's Astronomy Club. In 2020, she was also selected to attend GSUSA's National Convention. Carys would like to pursue her undergraduate degree in Biomedical Engineering, Medicine and Human Factors. She is interested in health and medicine and would like to work for NASA, Space X or US Space Force studying habitats and astronauts.

"It is impossible to pick just one part of my Girl Scout experience that has influenced me. I believe that Girl Scouts has fundamentally shaped who I am today."

JLLS SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Mahriya Crawford

Mahriya is a goal setter and has been a top cookie seller during her 14 years in Girl Scouts. During this time, she has sold more than 25,000 boxes of cookies and has learned the importance of money management. Her participation in the Girl Scout Cookie Program has given her the opportunity to travel all over the world with the Girl Scout Travel Troop. Mahriya has been accepted to The University of Tulsa and Oral Roberts University. Her career interests are in nursing and business marketing.

"I have had so many amazing successes during my years in Girl Scouts. Some of my best memories are traveling. During my involvement in this organization I have had the opportunity to travel all over the world."

JLLS SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Katelynn Davis

Katelynn is a lifelong Girl Scout with a passion for travel. Over the last 7 years in Girl Scouts, international travel with the Girl Scout Travel Troop has taught her valuable lessons when away from home and allowed her to make lasting memories. Once extremely shy, Katelynn has gained public speaking and people skills through selling Girl Scout Fall Products to help fund her travels. Katelynn is attending The University of Tulsa in the fall to study chemical engineering.

“I have a passion for seeing the world, experiencing different cultures and eating different cuisines. I get to pursue that passion through Girl Scouts by going on available trips they offer.”

Kayla Eyler

Giving back to her community is one thing Kayla has learned to love in her 12 years as a Girl Scout. She went above and beyond to make a difference at Camp Wah-Shah-She to earn her Bronze Award and helped develop the Osage Hills Junior Ranger Program to earn her Silver Award. During her high school career Kayla has accumulated over 250 hours of community service with various organizations including the Tulsa City- County Library. Kayla is interested in receiving a bachelor's degree in Zoology or Biology and attending graduate school to become a veterinarian.

“I believe Girl Scouts has helped me become the motivated volunteer I am today by showing me how fulfilling volunteering and helping others can be.”

Holly Hilst

Holly has found her “chosen path” by participating in Girl Scouts for 11 years. Through Girl Scout camp she has gained an appreciation for the outdoors. Holly has earned her Bronze and Silver Awards and is on track to complete her Gold Award project. Her project focuses on building an outdoor classroom for ongoing environmental research. Holly would like to attend a small college with research opportunities and has an interest in law.

“Girl Scouts has helped guide me in one of the most important decisions of my life, choosing a course of study.”

Lilian Jones

Because of Girl Scouts, Lilian is unstoppable. She earned her Gold Award by creating “Bufs Go Green”, a recycling program for public school's. Lilian was recognized for her district wide project and awarded by the Pride in McAlester for Most Outstanding Student Award. Through this process she gained better social skills, accountability and public speaking. In addition to being involved in Girl Scouts, Lilian is active in her church youth group and schools FFA organization. She plans to attend Eastern Oklahoma State College with a goal to be a veterinarian.

“Being included in this amazing organization has made me more caring, open minded, think outside of the box, and a better person overall.”

Evie Luton

As a life-long Girl Scout, Evie has learned the meaning of community service and has put that into action. During her 14 years in Girls Scouts she has earned her Bronze and Silver Awards and worked closely with All Star Therapy Group to earn her Gold Award. Her project focused on refurbishing the horse arena and creating a command center for individuals with special needs. She has also learned to lead others effectively and has become a volunteer for younger Girl Scout troops. Evie is currently enrolled at Rogers State University and plans to pursue a degree in Early Childhood Education.

“Girl Scouts has been a valuable part of my childhood. My Girl Scout friends remain my closest friends today. My leaders were among the most important adults in my life. It was a place where I felt safe to express myself.”

Serenity Rocha

Serenity has succeeded in Girl Scouts and school even though the odds have been against her. Girls Scouts has given her the opportunity to stay in contact with her incarcerated mother and enabled her to form relationships with other teens in her same situation. With Girl Scouts she has gained confidence and has the desire to continue her education. Serenity is currently enrolled in a 2-year Cosmetology Program at Tulsa Tech and was inducted into the National Technical Honors Society. She is interested in joining the military reserves.

“Girl Scout volunteers have helped me gain confidence by staying and finishing school.”

Ashleigh Ross

Ashleigh comes from a long line of Girl Scouts and has made a huge impact on her local community. She has grown into a well-rounded leader due to her 13 years in Girl Scouts and lives her life according to the Girl Scout Law. Ashleigh worked to beautify Camp Wah-Shah-She Reflection Point, earning her Bronze Award and worked together with her troop to create a Junior Ranger Program for Osage Hills State Park, receiving her Silver Award. She plans to attend Oklahoma State University to pursue a career in conservation biology.

“Girl Scouts has given me the opportunity to see how other girls use their confidence to change the world and the skills needed to follow in their footsteps.”

Alyssa Warren

Alyssa lives by the Girl Scout Promise and Law. She has thrived over the past 13 years in Girl Scouts. Alyssa connected with the Girl Scout Travel Troop, developing her love for traveling. She gained important skills through this endeavor; by working, she raised enough money to fund her travel trips. Alyssa is also a dedicated student and member of Union's Early College High School Program. Through her determination she will receive her High School diploma and Associates Degree. Alyssa will attend Oklahoma State University in the fall to study elementary education.

“I’ve learned to be kind and friendly to everyone I meet, to respect my bosses, administrators and community leaders, and most importantly, to leave my mark on the world to help make it a better place.”
