Tell your own unique cookie story by creating a mini graphic novel!

We know you have a unique and awesome cookie story, and the world should hear it!

Did you know? A graphic novel is a story told through pictures and words set up in a series of panels or sections. Here's how you can tell yours!

#1 What's your story?

Here are some ideas for what to include in your one-of-a-kind tale of skill and strength!

- ◆ How did you and your troop prepare for your cookie sale?
- ◆ How did you (or will you) use your earnings?
- ◆ What did you learn?
- ◆ How did you unleash your G.I.R.L. potential to manage your sale with the dedication and passion of a real-life super hero?

PRO TIP
A "thought bubble" like this one can be used to show what someone's thinking.

#2 Start sketching!

Watch your inner super hero spread her wings and fly as your story begins to come alive!

- ◆ Sketch the main characters.
- ◆ Draw the places where your story happened.
- ◆ Show the main events and emotions of your story.

PRO TIP
A "speech balloon" like this one can help you show when a character is talking.

PRO TIP
"Action boxes" like this one can be used to let your narrator speak.

#3 Go for it!

- ◆ Create a frame-by-frame outline that tells your story using pictures and words (use the PRO TIPS on this page to guide you!).
- ◆ Consider using close-ups of your characters' faces to show important emotions.
- ◆ Finalize your crazy-cool creation using the graphic novel template in this document, or download a copy at girlscouts.org/cookiepro. Use one page if you're a Daisy, Brownie, or Junior, or two pages if you're a Cadette, Senior, or Ambassador.
