A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for everything that you do as a volunteer in our council and for your commitment to serving girls in eastern Oklahoma. It is an honor to serve as the chair of your board and to be a part of this year’s celebration of our accomplished Gold Award Girl Scouts, and our outstanding adults who make this organization possible.

Therefore, it is my privilege to send you the official Call to the Annual Meeting of the Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma to be held at 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 28, 2018 at Northeastern State University (NSU), Administrative Services Building, 3100 East New Orleans Street, Broken Arrow, OK, 74014. (See following map.)

The Annual Corporate Meeting is prescribed by state law and council Bylaws. It is an opportunity to receive the Stewardship Reports, the council’s Financial Reports, and to elect members of the board development committee and the board of directors. Candidates for the board and board development committee may attend, but may vote only if they are currently registered members. Candidates’ terms will begin upon election, near the conclusion of the meeting.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS SUNDAY, APRIL 15, 2018

The registration site is found online: www.gseok.org

This event is open to adults and Girl Scouts of all ages. There is no charge to attend for ages fourteen (14) and above, but preregistration is required for lunch. Girl Scouts ages five (5) to thirteen (13) are offered a special lunch and activities following the Gold Award Ceremony for $5.00 per preregistered attendee. Commemorative patches will be available the day of the event on a first come, first served basis.

Preregistered attendees: Check-in tables will open at 9 a.m. and close at 10:30 a.m.

VOTING ELIGIBILITY: Council Bylaws state that to be eligible to vote you must be a currently registered member of the Girl Scout Movement and fourteen (14) years of age or over. Each member of the council meeting these requirements shall be entitled to one (1) vote.

You represent the interests of the girls and adults in the democratic governance of Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma and it is vital that you fulfill that obligation. We hope you will attend and be inspired by the many other events of the day including the Gold Award Ceremony and Adult Recognition Ceremony.

I look forward to seeing you on April 28 for our Annual Meeting and Showcase!

Sincerely,

Gary Provine
Chair of the Board of Directors

BROKEN ARROW, OK 74014

From Northwest Oklahoma
From the Cimarron Turnpike, connect to Highway 51 near downtown Tulsa (Broken Arrow Expressway). Take the BA Expressway through Tulsa and Broken Arrow to the "Creek Turnpike West" exit (just past the Highway 51 "Coweta" exit). The "Creek Turnpike West" exit will actually take you south to the NSU-Broken Arrow campus. You will see the campus on the right as you approach 101st Street (also called New Orleans Street). Take the 101st/New Orleans Street exit, which will lead you directly to the main campus entrance.

From West or Central Oklahoma
From the Turner Turnpike, take the "Creek Turnpike East" exit, which is just past the Sapulpa exits. This will take you through south Tulsa. After passing the Memorial Street exit, make sure you are in the right lane to remain on the Creek Turnpike through south Broken Arrow (rather than going north on Highway 169). Continue on the Creek Turnpike until it curves north (approximately 6 miles) and you will see the campus directly in front on you. As you approach 101st Street (also called New Orleans Street), the road veers to the right around the campus. Take the 101st/New Orleans Street exit, then turn west (right) on 101st Street to the traffic light at the main entrance of the campus.

From Muskogee Turnpike
As you arrive in east Broken Arrow, take the "Creek Turnpike West" exit, which will actually take you south to the NSU-Broken Arrow campus. You will see the campus on the right as you approach 101st Street (also called New Orleans Street). Take the 101st/New Orleans Street exit, which will lead you directly to the main campus entrance.

From the South
From Highway 75, take the "Creek Turnpike East" exit, which is just a few miles north of the Glenpool traffic light on Highway 75. This will take you through south Tulsa. After passing the Memorial Street exit, make sure you are in the right lane to remain on the Creek Turnpike through south Broken Arrow (rather than going north on Highway 169). Continue on the Creek Turnpike through south Broken Arrow until it curves north, and you will see the campus directly in front on you. As you approach 101st Street (also called New Orleans Street), the road veers to the right around the campus. Take the 101st/New Orleans Street exit, turn west (right) on 101st Street to the traffic light at the main entrance of the campus.

From the North
If arriving in the Tulsa area on Highway 75 from Bartlesville, connect with Highway 51 East (Broken Arrow Expressway) near downtown Tulsa. Take the BA Expressway through Tulsa and Broken Arrow to the "Creek Turnpike West" exit (just past the Highway 51 "Coweta" exit). The "Creek Turnpike West" exit will actually take you south to the NSU-Broken Arrow campus. You will see the campus on the right as you approach 101st Street (also called New Orleans Street). Take the 101st/New Orleans Street exit, which will lead you directly to the main campus entrance.

From the Northeast
From the Will Rogers Turnpike, take the "Creek Turnpike West" option as the Will Rogers Turnpike terminates near Catoosa. Continue south on the Creek Turnpike to the 101st Street (also called New Orleans Street) exit. This exit will take you directly to the main campus entrance.
Other Options

If you live in Broken Arrow, there are a number of routes to take. The easiest directions are to take either Olive Ave., Aspen Ave., Elm Place, Lynn Lane, or County Line Road until you reach New Orleans Street. Turn east and follow New Orleans Street until you reach the campus. The closest cross streets to the campus are New Orleans Street and S. 209th E. Ave.

From Coweta, take Oneta Road or Midway Road until you reach S. 101st Street. S. 101st Street turns into E. New Orleans Street. Go West on S. 101st Street until you reach campus. The closest cross streets to the campus are New Orleans Street and S. 209th E. Ave.

From Tulsa, Owasso, or Claremore, take Highway 169 South to BA Expressway (51) East to Lynn Lane. Go South on Lynn Lane until you reach New Orleans Street. Turn left (east) on New Orleans until you reach the campus. The closest cross streets to the campus are New Orleans Street and S. 209th E. Ave.

From Wagoner, take Highway 51 West to S. 101st Street in Coweta. S. 101st Street turns into E. New Orleans Street. Go West on S. 101st Street until you reach campus. The closest cross streets to the campus are New Orleans Street and S. 209th E. Ave.

The Annual Meeting of the Corporation, Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma, Inc., was held on April 29, 2017 at the Northeastern State University, 3100 East New Orleans Street, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. A quorum of more than 50% of the voting membership was present, with more than 50% of the service units having at least one elected delegate present. An opening ceremony was presented by Girl Scout Troop #4080. Julie Smith, Chair of the Board, called the 2017 Annual Meeting into session at 12:14 p.m., recognizing the voting membership and welcoming all in attendance.

Julie asked for a motion to approve the minutes of the April 30, 2016 Annual Meeting. Kathie McKinney made a motion to approve the minutes as presented. Susan Crenshaw seconded the motion. Julie called for a vote. All votes were aye, none were opposed. The motion carried and the minutes were approved as presented.

Kiemonn Jones, Treasurer, presented the treasurer’s report and the Finance Committee report for the council’s 2016 fiscal year. No significant audit statements were noted.

In the absence of Cindy Bottomley, Roberta Preston, President and CEO, presented the stewardship report for Fund Development. D.D. Porter, Chair of the Property Committee, presented the property stewardship report.

Julie presented the board chair’s report on the governance work of the board of directors.

Julie presented the following amendments to the council bylaws as recommended by the Governance Task Group:

- Proposal one to adopt a one member/one vote process to allow eligible members the ability to vote and eliminate designated delegates from the bylaws. Tina Ford made a motion to approve proposal one. Jenni McClanahan seconded the motion. Opportunity for questions was presented and discussed. Julie called for a vote. The motion passed by majority vote.

- Proposal two establishes the quorum for the annual meeting given a one member/one vote approach. At least one voting member from half of the service units will be required as a safeguard. Pam Crawford made a motion to approve proposal two. Monique Francois seconded the motion. Julie called for questions and hearing none, called for a vote. The motion passed by majority vote.

- Proposal three will clarify that the board secretary will oversee certain files and the corporate seal, rather than take actual possession. Casey Gilmore made a motion to approve proposal three. Jordan McClanahan seconded the motion. Julie called for questions or discussions, and hearing none, called for a vote. The motion passed by majority vote.

- Proposal four reduces the number of board meetings from five to four annually. Melissa Stubbs made a motion to approve proposal four. Kathe McKinney seconded the motion. Julie called for questions or discussions, and hearing none, called for a vote. The motion passed by unanimous vote.
Julie presented the Board Development Committee Report. She explained the selection process of the committee and presented the slate of nominees for election to the board of directors, the board development committee, and the national delegates and alternates. Voting members were instructed that because the slate comes from committee, no second was required. Board Chair Smith asked for a motion to accept the slate for board of directors and the board development committee as presented. Pam Crawford made a motion to accept the slate as presented for the board of directors and the board development committee. All votes were in favor, none were opposed. Both slates were accepted as presented and all candidates were elected by a unanimous vote.

Julie presented the slate of nominees for election of national delegates and alternates. Bianca Grizzle made a motion to accept the slate as presented for the national delegates and alternates. No second was required. The motion passed by majority vote.

Roberta Preston, Chief Executive Officer, reported on the operations of the council.

Newly elected Chair Gary Provine addressed the assembly. Gary asked for a motion to adjourn. Pam Crawford moved to adjourn. The motion was adopted. Gary declared the 2017 Annual Business Meeting of the Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma adjourned at 1:07 p.m.
