

Regina Moon – President and Chief Executive Officer

Regina is a fifth-generation Oklahoman. She was born and raised in Prague, and attended East Central University in Ada. Regina's career began in television, where she had the opportunity to closely observe the communities her stations served. For many years, she managed broadcast properties, gaining an understanding of the needs and challenges of the people within those communities.

In 2009, Regina entered the nonprofit world as Chief Executive Officer of the Eastern Oklahoma Red Cross. She spent the next twelve years gaining experience with medium to large-sized nonprofit organizations, most recently serving as the CEO of The Parent Child Center of Tulsa.

Regina began her career at Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma in 2021 with a wealth of experience in revenue generation and fundraising, individual and team development, marketing and branding, multiple facilities management, finance, and regulatory compliance. When she is not meeting with donors or building strategies for success, Regina and her husband, Steve, are cheering on their son, Max, who lives in Nashville. Max is following in his mother's footsteps as a digital host and producer for News Channel 5.

Cindy Roecker – Chief Financial Officer

Cindy received her Bachelor of Science in Business (Accounting) from Eastern Illinois University and is a Certified Public Accountant, among many of her professional designations. Prior to joining Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma, Cindy had 27 years of accounting and leadership experience at State Farm Insurance. She has significant experience in modernizing processes through successful collaboration with stakeholder groups across many organizations. Her desire is to serve an organization which makes an impact and believes her resourcefulness and determination at GSEOK will accomplish that goal.

Katie Gill Miller – Chief Operating Officer

Katie is a native Tulsan with more than 10 years of leadership experience in Tulsa nonprofits. Her experience in operations and oversight ranges from facilities management to community programming, including youth programming. Katie received her Bachelor degree in Health and Exercise Science from the University of Oklahoma and her Master in Business Administration from Oklahoma State University.

Hillary Parkhurst Sutton – Chief Development Officer

Hillary Parkhurst Sutton is a lifelong Tulsan with over 10 years of experience working in development and fundraising in northeastern Oklahoma. Previously, she served as Director of Development for ahha Tulsa and the George Miksch Sutton Avian Research Center; she also served as Mayoral Aide for Authorities, Boards, and Commissions and International Affairs in the Mayor's Office at the City of Tulsa for both Mayor Kathy Taylor and Mayor Dewey Bartlett. Hillary has been active on numerous boards across the city, currently serving as Vice President of The Summit Club. She attended the University of Kansas and has received certification in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion from the University of South Florida. Her primary focus at GSEOK is developing and directing a fund development plan, while cultivating a community of long-term individual, foundation, and corporate donors.

Patrick Sharp – Chief Property Officer

Patrick attended Northeastern Oklahoma A&M and Stephens College where he studied and majored in technical theater. He comes to us with over 35 years of leadership experience in the entertainment business. Patrick joined GSEOK in November of 2014 after spending 30 years at the Tulsa Performing Arts Center where he specialized in the technical and operations area for the facility. He left the PAC as its Technical and Operations Director. Patrick has traveled extensively across the United States, providing his skills and leadership within the entertainment world.

His background in all areas of production and operations has made Patrick very well suited for his position with the Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma.
