

Council Camper Patch

GSEOK 283

To be a Council Camper, visit all four Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma camps and complete at least four activities at each site. Patches are available at the Girl Scout Shop and may be worn on the back of the uniform. Happy camping!

Camp Swannie

- Go fishing in the pond.
- Play volleyball and/or basketball.
- Hike to McQuiddy Point.
- Find the names of at least ten different people or companies who contributed to the building of Camp Swannie
- Visit the Wishing Well. Why are the troops on the bricks around the base special?
- Hike Talannie Trail to Tallchief and back. Take a break at the Gazebo.

Camp Tall Chief

- Read the story of Kihakah Steh (Tall Chief).
- Find the “Gone with the wind” picture. Do you see Tall Chief’s statue?
- Name all ten sleeping areas.
- There are two bells at Tall Chief. One is near the flagpole at the Lodge. Find the other one.
- Hike Talannie Trail.
- Catch a fish at the pond– or at least try to catch one!
- Walk through Linda’s Web.

Troop House

- Who built the Troop House? What year was it dedicated?
- Find the names on the bricks at the memorial.
- Identify four different kinds of trees on the property.
- Follow the trails and see where they lead.
- Build a fire in the fire ring. Make S’mores and sing “Linger”.
- Count the Trefoil-shaped wall sconces.
- Walk the maze from two different entrances.
- Find the bell and identify the animal on it.

Camp Wah-Shah-She

- Learn the legend of Camp Wah-Shah-She.
- Take a hike and find each of the following: the Arts & Crafts Pavilion, Wapiti, Wasabe, Thoxe, A-Ki-Ki-Pa.
- Visit Lake Higo.
- Hike to Niawaski (Littleman Falls) for lunch.
- Explore the Covered Wagons.
- Find C-Otazah, the Lodge and Conference Center.
- Find out what plants, animals and birds live at camp. Illustrate one of each by casting, printing, drawing, photographing or writing about them.

Camp S'more

After visiting all the council camps, adventure out! Go camping in a state park or wilderness area. You might even try camping at a facility operated by another Girl Scout council.

While exploring your camping options, you might like to use a compass or GPS unit to find your way or locate a geocache. Doing so will qualify you for the GeoTrackers Club Patch. Geocache capsules have been placed at all council campsites and are waiting to be discovered!
