*Most activities sponsored by the council do not require you to have specific training in addition to GSEOK Troop Leadership and Beyond the Meeting to attend and do not need council approval (submitting Form #585F).

Examples: Daisy Day is held at a council facility but does not require site orientation, outdoor training, or additional approval.

As with all troop activities, a first aider is still required.

Using council facilities for a day use or an overnight requires training before use. ✕

1. Someone with your troop must have site orientation for the site.
2. All GSSCs, Eaton Lodge, Stillwater Lodge and the Troop House require the site orientation and Beyond the Meeting training (for simple overnights with no fire building or outdoor skills).
3. Camps Tallchief, Swannie and Wah-Shah-She require site orientation, Beyond the Meeting and Troop Camper training.

✕ Training available through the council.
See the Training section in the online calendar
(www.gseok.org)

Always remember to consult the Activity Progression Chart (form #571T) and Safety Activity Checkpoints for more details about requirements for activities.
