It is amazing that the mission of Girl Scouts has endured for over 100 years. From the early 1900's when our founder Juliette Gordon Low started the first troop to today, Girl Scouts provides vital programming for young girls. The work of Girl Scouts has played an instrumental role in the lives of so many women – a safe and welcoming place for girls to be themselves, exceptional programming to satisfy any interest, and the motivation and support to help girls know there is nothing they can't do.

The mission of Girl Scouts is to build girls of courage, confidence and character, who make the world a better place. We deliver that mission through a wide variety of programming to ensure that girls from Daisy to Ambassador can find the type of activities that interest them - STEM, Outdoors/Camping, Entrepreneurship and Life Skills. Beyond programs, scouting instills the values of integrity, kindness and consideration, self-reliance, courage and strength. It also helps girls develop communication and leadership skills, exposes them to incredible life experiences, and positions them to achieve their full potential.

It is our duty to lead Girl Scouts into the next 100 years. That will require innovation and change, but I can think of no better group than a band of smart, creative, thoughtful and accomplished girls and women to lead that charge. I'm excited about our future.

Therefore, it is my privilege to send you the official Call to the Annual Meeting of the Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma to be held at 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 5, 2025, at Northeastern State University (NSU), Administrative Services Building, 3100 East New Orleans Street, Broken Arrow, OK 74014.

The Annual Corporate Meeting is prescribed by council Bylaws as an opportunity to receive the stewardship reports, the council's financial reports, and council news.

Elections will again be conducted utilizing Qualtrics software, which is endorsed by GSUSA for this purpose. The polls will open on Tuesday, March 11 and will close at midnight on Tuesday, March 18. The election results will be announced at the Annual Meeting held on Saturday, April 5, 2025, and will be posted on the council's website following the meeting.

Council Bylaws state that to be eligible to vote you must be a currently registered member of the Girl Scout Movement and fourteen (14) years of age or over. Each member of the council who meets these requirements shall be entitled to one (1) vote. The slate of nominees for all offices or positions to be filled pursuant to the Bylaws are included in this Call to Annual Meeting packet.
