...and so much more!

Why Go To Camp?

Skill Building

At camp, kids build confidence and independence as they learn new skills—from archery to teamwork—that last long after summer ends.

Independence

At camp, kids gain confidence by trying new things on their own and learning they're capable of more than they imagined.

Nature Appreciation

At camp, kids unplug and reconnect with nature, discovering the joy of exploring the outdoors and caring for the world around them.

Fun!

Camp is all about laughter, adventure, and making memories that keep kids smiling all year long.
