

Leader's Quest: The Bubblegum Kingdom

Premise:

The Bubblegum Queen has lost her crown in the sticky swamps of Chewtropolis. The troop must journey through sugar-coated challenges to restore peace (and minty-fresh breath) to the realm.

Quest Steps:

1. Pop Test: Girl Scouts pretend to blow the world's biggest bubble. If it "pops," they must all freeze in silly poses until someone shouts "UNSTICKED!"
2. Sticky Swamp Crawl: Lay yarn, streamers, or tape across a hallway/space. Girls must crawl under or step over without getting "stuck."
3. Candy Code: Decode a silly secret message written with candy names (like: "Skittles + Twix = Meet by the Marshmallows").
4. Gumball Gauntlet: Girls roll balloons ("gumballs") across the floor into a basket without using their hands—only feet, elbows, or teamwork.
5. Crown Ceremony: The lost crown (a paper or toy crown) is discovered, and the Queen (leader in silly costume) thanks the troop for saving the kingdom.

Boss Battle:

The troop faces the Bubblegum Beast (leader covered in pink streamers or balloons). To defeat it, they must work together to shout the magic spell: "Stick together, never apart—Troop power comes from the heart!"

Victory Title:

They become the Champions of Chewtropolis 🍬.
