

Leader's Quest: Junior "Phantom of the Patch Boss Battle"

Junior Level: Creativity, Courage & Event Planning Adventure

Badge connections: Entertainment Technology • Scribe • Social Butterfly

Mission Briefing – Welcome, Junior Adventurer!

Something spooky is brewing at the annual Girl Scout Fall Festival... The mysterious Phantom of the Patch has enchanted the pumpkin patch and scattered mischief across the troop's party plans. Games are glitched, decorations are scrambled, and no one knows what's real or pretend! Can your troop out-lead the phantom and throw the most legendary fall fest ever?

Boss Profile:

Boss Name: Phantom of the Patch

Weakness: Planning, creativity, and teamwork

Battlefield: Troop meeting, camp lodge, or party space

Victory Condition: Lead a fun, fall-themed event or celebration that brings people together

Battle Strategy (Choose 2):

- Party Rescue Crew: Plan a mini troop celebration — assign roles like games, music, and decor.
- Spooky Skit Squad: Create a short Halloween-themed skit or puppet show with a teamwork or kindness message.
- Monster Mash Mixer: Practice social skills like introducing yourself, giving compliments, and being a good host.
- Ghostwriter's Guild: Write a group story or comic about a brave Girl Scout saving a haunted patch!

Girl Role Choices (Pick Yours):

- Pumpkin Planner: You're great at organizing details and keeping things on track.
- Specter Speaker: You welcome guests, guide games, and keep the energy up.
- Ghoulish Guide: You help anyone who feels lost or shy feel included and brave.
- Wicked Wordsmith: You bring the magic with poems, skits, or ghostly good storytelling.

Quest Log

- | | |
|---|---|
| • What event or activity did we plan or lead? | • What was my role? |
| • What made people smile or laugh? | • What did I learn about being a good host or teammate? |

Level-Up Reflection

- What makes a good host or party leader?
- When did you feel nervous, and how did you push through?
- What part of our quest showed real leadership?
- If you could lead a party for the whole world, what would it be?

Victory Stamp

[Draw a star, get a stamp, or add a sticker here!]

